

R. Wayne Estopinal | AIA, ACHA, LEED AP
President

As president of TEG, Wayne Estopinal utilizes more than two decades of complex health care planning and design experience to provide specialized facility services. Focusing on facility planning and architecture, he offers even the most demanding health care clients a level of personal and professional planning and design competence.

Wayne holds extensive knowledge of health care delivery systems, technology, planning issues, current design opportunities, user concepts and operationally oriented philosophy. This knowledge provides the comprehensive background necessary to assist in evaluating complex facility opportunities and providing exceptional solutions.

Wayne is an active Ball State University alumnus (Class of '79) and serves the university, via his positions on the Ball State University Board of Trustees, BSU Alumni Council and BSU Foundation. In the Louisville area, he is active with the Louisville Sports Commission Board of Directors; Louisville Zoo Foundation Board of Directors; Lincoln Heritage Council Boy Scouts of America Board of Directors; Community Bankshares of Indiana Board of Directors; and Your Community Bank Board of Directors. Wayne is also the owner of the Louisville City FC of the MLS, minority owner and Board of Directors member for the Orlando City Soccer Club of the USL, and Owner and Managing Partner of Mockingbird Valley Soccer Club in Louisville.

His personal interests include: distance running, soccer and inspiring in others a passion for excellence.
